Description:

This 3 piece desktop organizer can be used to store a wide variety of items. There are some small cutouts on the bottom for rubber pads. Additionally, there's a .3MF and .stl file where the desktop organizer is a single piece. The width is 250mm, meaning that you can print it on a Prusa i3 MK3(S)(+) for example, but the print time will be quite long. Support If you want to support me for the designs I publish for free, please consider using my AliExpress Affiliate Link: <https://bit.ly/2LPMNMh> when buying something from AliExpress. It doesn't cost you anything extra, but helps me out a lot :)
